La Vista to Host Several More Events This Summer

La Vista's schedule of free, summer events continues this Friday night, July 22, with a combination concert and movie event at the La Vista Public Library, 9110 Giles Road.

The band, Charm School Dropouts, will take the stage at 7 p.m. in the northwest parking lot, and they will play until approximately 9 p.m. As soon as possible after the concert, the movie "Morning Glory" will be shown in the grassy area immediately east of the concert area.

Other free, summer events coming up in La Vista include:

- Tuesday, August 2 – National Night Out, 6-9 p.m., La Vista Central Park
 - National Night Out will feature a free community cookout, while supplies last, vehicles on display from the Police, Fire and Public Works departments, games and a Walk Against Crime at approximately 8 p.m.
- Friday, August 5 – Concert, "The Labels", 7 p.m., La Vista Public Library
- Sunday, August 7 – Splash Bash, free day at the La Vista Municipal Pool, 1-4 p.m.
 - Live DJ , games, prizes and free food, while supplies last.

All events are free to the general public.
