La Vista Click It or Ticket Results

La Vista police officers were out in force recently targeting safety belt and child restraint violations.

Officers worked a total of 40 hours during the Click It or Ticket operation, which took place May 20-June 2. Throughout the operation, 105 traffic stops were made for moving violations and 47 citations were issued, including nine for safety belt violations.

Prior to the enforcement effort the overall observed safety belt use rate was 72 percent. Following the increased enforcement effort the overall observed safety belt use rate was 82 percent.

The enforcement campaign was designed to enhance motorist's awareness of safety belt and child restraint laws. The additional patrols were funded through a grant from the Nebraska Office of Highway Safety.
